Lloyd Raymond Hamilton, 69, of 1065 Brook St., Lynchburg, died at 7 p.m. Sunday at Lynchburg General Hospital. He was the husband of Daisy Robertson Hamilton.

Born in Appomattox County, he was the son of Richard A. Hamilton, Sr. and Bessie Patterson Hamilton. He was a member of Mt. Comfort United Methodist Church and a veteran of World War II. He was a retired foreman for Craddock-Terry Shoe Corp., where he was a member of the Quarter Century Club.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Manuel D. Chavez and Mrs. Preston C. Lloyd, both of Lynchburg; four brothers, Robert S. Hamilton, Richard A. Hamilton Jr. and John W. Hamilton, all of Lynchburg, and Hunt P. Hamilton of Appomattox; four sisters, Miss Kathleen Hamilton of Lynchburg, Mrs. Beth H. Grow of Washington, D.C. and Mrs. Nellie H. Beale and Mrs. Lorraine H. Torrence, both of Appomattox, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Robinson Funeral Home by the Rev. Leon Lloyd. Burial was in Liberty Chapel Baptist Church Cemetery.

Mrs. John A. Hesson

GLADSTONE - Mrs. Dundee Martin Hesson, 89, widow of John Alexander Hesson, Sr., died Monday morning at Lynchburg General Hospital.

Born in Appomattox County, she was a daughter of Charles Rufus Martin and Ella Rebecca Burge Martin. She was a member of St. James United Methodist Church.

She is survived by five sons, John A. Hesson Jr., Ralph M. Hesson, Warren S. Hesson, Julian B. Hesson of Gladstone, and Albert J. Hesson of Richmond; a brother, Charles R. Martin of Huntington, W. Va., seven grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Driskill's Amherst Funeral Chapel. Burial was in Amherst Cemetery.

Oscar F. Fleshman

Oscar Fleming Fleshman, 80, of Route 1, Appomattox died Monday night at his home.

Born in Charlotte County, he was a son of the late Willie J. Fleshman and Alice Ferguson Fleshman. He was a retired farmer and a member of Concord Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Ella May Paulette Fleshman; four brothers, Frank Fleshman of Appomattox, Hudson Fleshman of Blue Ridge, Everette Fleshman of Phenix, and Willard Fleshman of Red House; three sisters, Mrs. Ella Blackwell of Farmville, Mrs. Bessie Hamlett of Phenix, and Mrs. Rosa Wilbun of Red House.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Concord Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Everette Hellmuth and the Rev. Durwood Fox with burial in the church cemetery.

Those wishing to make memorials should consider the Appomattox County Rescue Squad.

Robinson Funeral Hme was in charge of arrangements.

Col. R. F. Akers, Jr.

FRONT ROYAL - Col. Russell F. Akers, Jr., USA ret., died Friday of cancer at Warren Memorial Hospital.

A native of Nelson County, he was a 1933 graduate of the United States Military Academy. Later in his career, he attended the Command and General Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, and Industrial College of the Armed Forces.

After his graduation from West Point, he served in a number of posts in the United States and abroad immediately preceding World War II. During World War II he was operations officer Staff 2 Corps, and from 1943-45, was operations officer for the First Army during activities in North Africa, Sicily, France and Germany.

Peace time posts following World War II included assignments at the Pentagon, Fort Dix and at Governor's Island. During the Korean War he first served as assistant chief of staff, Operations Headquarters 9 Corps and later commanded the 15th Infantry Regiment.

Colonel Akers was the recipient of the Silver Star, the Legion of Merit with two Oak Leaf Clusters, the Bronze Star for valor with 11 campaign stars, the Greek Medal of Honor, the Greek Order of the Phoenix, and the Korean Ulchi with silver star.

Following his retirement from the military in 1961, Colonel Akers was salesmanager for Founders Mutual Fund in Germany, Italy and England, for seven years.

In 1968 he moved to Front Royal, where he was a member of the Lions Club and was active in numerous civic affairs. He was a member of the Giles B. Cook Post No. 63, American Legion.

Colonel Akers is survived by his wife, Friedel; a son, Richard Graham Akers of Lawrenceville, N.J.; his mother, Mrs. Winnie Akers, formerly of Appomattox; and now of Arlington; a sister, Mrs. Lucille A. Harvey of Falls Church, and two grandchildren.

A memorial service was held at 2 p.m. Sunday, at the Maddox Funeral Home in Front Royal.

The family suggests that expressions of sympathy be in the form of contributions to the American Cancer Society.

Col. Akers was well known in our area and had many friends here.

Junior Choir Anniversary

The Mount Shiloh Baptist Church Junior choir will celebrate its anniversary this Sunday evening at 3 P.M. The First Baptist Church Junior choir of Lynchburg will be its special guest. The anniversary message will be delivered by Mr. Carl B. Hutcherson, Jr. of Lynchburg. Local Junior choirs have been invited to attend this program.

A very large crowd attended the regular preaching service at the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a very informative and helpful message from the theme: "The life and reward of the critic". Beautiful music was rendered by the senior choir and junior choir. Several visitors attended the service.

All officers, members and friends are cordially invited to attend the regular preaching service at the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday morning at 11 a.m.

A very good meeting of the local chapter of NAACP was held at the Promiseland Baptist Church last Monday evening at 7:30 The vice president Rev. A. B. Jones presided. Several new members joined. The next meeting will be held with the Peaceful Grove Baptist Church of Concord, Va. Plans were presented to call all members of the Voters League to meet at the next meeting for reorganization. All local community leaders are asked to cooperate.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Zion Baptist Church held its regular meeting last Sunday in the home of deacon and Mrs. Ross Edward. The president, Mrs. Geneva Wiggins, presided Mrs. Maganola Franklin was at her post as recording secretary. The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Etta Edwards. An added feature, a weight rally was presented by members of the club. The rally was a great success. A large number attended. Visitors from Richmond, Va. in the persons of Mrs. Mary Mack and Mrs. Beatrice Walker were special guest. We were happy to have our pastor's wife, Mrs. Hankins to join the club. Mrs. Hankins also gave a very interesting Talk. The club appointed the following members as the committee for the next meeting: Miss Barbara Hunter and Mrs. Barbara Ralcliff. The hostess, Mrs. Etta Edwards served a delicious dinner. All present enjoyed the dinner. The meeting was closed by the chaplain to meet next at the home of deacon and Mrs. Russell Mack.

The general public is cordially invited to attend regular preaching service at the Zion Baptist Church this Sunday morning at 11 a.m. Mrs. Maganolia Franklin and granddaughter, Sybill attended the youth program at the Triumph Baptist Church last Sunday evening. The pastor Rev. Jordan delivered a very helpful sermon. Miss Sybill Franklin served as pianist. Mrs. Mildred Wheeler, Miss Lynn Garden and Mr. Tom Baker are on the sick list. Mrs. Mattie Lawson and children are much improved. We are also happy to report that Mrs. Wilsie Smith is improving nicely. Rev. James Franklin and little Cindy are much better after being in with colds.

Mr. Calvin Thornhill of Baltimore and his brother-in-law James Cobbs of Lynchburg, visited friends and relatives here in Appomatox.

Mrs. Bessie Robinson who was treated at the Lynchburg General Marshall Lodge Hospital last Friday has returned to her home here and is improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Robinson and sister Dorothy of Baltimore are spending some time here with their mother, Mrs. Bessie Robinson.

Miss Berta Cheatman of the Promiseland community is on the sick list.
